

OCCMA
Oregon City/County
Management Association
A State Affiliate of ICMA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
October 27, 2021

CONTACT:
Angela Speier
aspeier@orcities.org

OCCMA Names 2022 Officers and Board of Directors

SALEM, Ore. - During its annual business meeting, the Oregon City/County Management Association (OCCMA) elected new officers and board members for 2022. The following city officials were named to the OCCMA Board of Directors for the calendar year 2022. Officials new to the board this year appear in bold text.

President: Susie Marston, City Manager, Gervais
Past President: Steve Powers, City Manager, Salem
President-Elect: Scott Derickson, City Administrator, Woodburn
Secretary-Treasurer: Mike Cully, Executive Director, League of Oregon Cities

Directors:
Heidi Bell, City Manager, Sheridan
Adam Brown, City Manager, Ontario
Rachael Fuller, Interim Assistant County Administrator, Washington Co.
Dan Huff, City Manager, Molalla
Zoe Mombert, Assistant to the City Manager, Wilsonville
Aaron Palmquist, City Manager, Irrigon
John Walsh, City Administrator, St. Helens
Andy Varner, City Manager, North Plains

About the Oregon City/County Management Association

The purpose of the OCCMA is to increase the knowledge and ability of local government administrators and managers, to promote the exchange of information between the members and to support the functions and the aims of the International City/County Management Association. OCCMA is an affiliate organization of the League of Oregon Cities (LOC).

###